From sunrise to sunset, 200 of the northeast's top high school surfers competed in Spring Lake at NSSA Regionals Surf Competition on Sunday, Oct. 13. Shore Regional High School's Surf Team placed at an impressive 5th overall out of 23 teams. Representing Shore were Captains Casey Flaherty and Carter Riebe, Ari Binns, Jack Coyne, Zac Mansfield, Drew Macioch, Cole Riebe, Mitchell Cullen and Will Botcher. Carter and Jack made it to quarter finals, Casey and Zac advanced to semi finals. Ari made it to the long board final and placed 5th overall. Coach Chris Macioch and Assistant Coach Brian Zinski worked hard throughout the season leading the team at practices and competitions with other local high school teams. Shore Surf Team hopes to compete at the national level in June in California.

Working in collaboration with all stakeholders, we pursue a shared vision of a high quality regional high school that puts students first.

ion of the Shore Regional High School District is to produce altruistic graduates who are lifelong learners, equipped with an capacity to compete in a superior manner.
